about me

I am British-Filipino woman with excellent communication and organisational skills. I am highly motivated and ambitious which has been developed through my experiences and academic life, which has given me skills to work well independently and in a team. Throughout studying for a maths degree my love and passion for design has shone through all aspects of my work. I am eager to learn and tackle new challenges with an enthusiastic and positive outlook.

work experience

AFRIL

July 2017 - Present

Graphic Design Volunteer

With a recent updated logo, it has been my duty to redesign all of the charity's leaflets and banners. I have also worked on creating their Annual Report for this year.

Oliver Bonas

June 2016 – Present

Team Member

My role is to provide excellent customer service, through casual conversations, recommending products and always willing to go the extra mile. I have also enjoyed working on Visual Merchandising for the store, presenting new lines and making sure that they are within the company's guidelines.

Launch22

February 2016 - June 2016

Events Coordinator Internship

I manage all the events that take place at Launch22. Inviting potential speakers and companies to hold and host events in the space. I have also taken on more creative roles such as designing a new marketing poster and running the companies Instagram.

Walk In The Park Creative

February 2016

Graphic Design Volunteer

Worked on a few projects including: designing a marketing email, producing advertisement content for an event and planning a registration page.

Gilly Hicks & Hollister

April 2012 – April 2016

Sales Assistant

My role was to represent the brand through my personal style, providing everyone excellent customer service, maintaining the high presentation standards, and cashier.
